Michiana Mustangs monthly meeting at Honkers

BRAD'S BLOG

Man, the summer really heated up in terms of temperature and events. We had a good turnout for our picnic in the park and lots of good eats as usual. A big "Thank you" for Howard who brought his huge grill and cooked some great burgers, brats & dogs in short order! Also to Chris for coming early and lending a hand. The storm that rolled through earlier didn't bother us there but may have prevented some from attending. (Power was restored at our house 29 hours later but thankfully, no other damage done.) Carl Kindig took home the Paul Houseman award.

Quite a few Mustangers traveled to Fort Wayne to the Old Fort Mustang Show and once again took the cash for the most from another club award. Probably will return it to them on August 6. A lot of our members walked away with awards there. Always like sitting under the trees there at Ivy Tech trying to keep cool. Great location and a fine show if you've never experienced it. Next time, however Dick, don't listen to Gloria! (He finally beat me at the show.) Speaking of shows, ours is fast approaching on August 6. We desperately are in need of door prizes. Bring them to the next meeting out in the parking lot at Concord Mall on Monday, August 1 at 7:00 PM. We'll run through any last minute items pertaining to the show. Hope to see you soon.

Notes from Last Month's Meeting

President Brad Milliken opened the after-picnic meeting and welcomed all members and guests to one of our best-attended events. The following were present: Art & Fran Anderson, Scott & Chris Anderson, Peggy Anson, Howard Barrett, Art & Rebecca Campbell, Dick Cornman, Vic & Connie Garrison, Bob & Pat Goeller, Phillip & Bonnie Higley, Marty Hughes, Harold & Loretta Jedrzejewski, Roger & Shirley Kaser, Chris Kern, Elaine Kersey, Carl & Brenda Kindig, Blair & Sharon Knaak, Valerie Malecki with granddaughters Lauren and Jill Nalysinski, Hal & Rose McClure, Pete McClure, Brad Milliken with Kim Zink and mother Maxine, Ron & Charlotte Newcomer, Phil Nicodemus, Robert D. Relos, Paul Rogers, Ted Sauerbeck, Jim & June Schmidt, Ken & Becky Schmitt, Michael Sebella, Mona Steiner with guest Marj Harmon, George & Shirley Wachs, Larry & Shirley Weaver with son-in-law and daughter Bert and Kim Mays and grandsons Kyle and Austin Mays, Marion Williams, Alan Wright, and David Yoder

All had full tummies from the delicious food brought in and the scrumpidelicious grilling of brats and hamburgers by famous chefs Howard Barrett and Brad.

The crowd was asked to step out to our "memory tree" place where a moment of silence was observed for our deceased members.

The Mishawaka Park Board has asked that we not plant anymore trees, so suggestions were requested for other ideas. One was that we "assign" multiple name plates to the trees that are already there. Another was that we purchase a wood plaque and have the names inscribed on brass plates on the plaque. If allowed, the plaque could be hung at our meeting place. These will be discussed at a later date.

Show chairman Carl Kindig still has some job openings--get your name to him if you need a job at the show on August 6. NEXT MONTH'S MEETING WILL BE HELD AT THE SHOWSITE AT THE CONCORD MALL. COME AND EAT OUT BEFORE THE MEETING.

THAT MEETING WILL BE ON THE MONDAY BEFORE THE SHOW (AUGUST 1, 2011).

All who attended the Bremen show agreed that it was the best weather we have ever had and the 18 cars was a good turnout also. Our thanks again to Manager Laura Martin and her dealership for their time and hospitality, food, hats and door prizes. Having the tent available helped the hot weather go by.

Shirley and Larry Weaver's grandson, Kyle Mays, was awarded the Neal Decker scholarship. Kyle was in attendance and thanked the club and filled us in on his

OH, WHAT A BEAUTIFUL MORNING, OH, WHAT A BEAUTIFUL DAY!

That's the song that we were all singing on June 25 on our way to the Bremen Ford Show and Shine.

We were blessed with a beautiful warm, breezy day among Mustang Club members and guests. The highway in front of Bremen Ford had never shone so brightly with about 30 beautiful ponies and Joe Kraatz's Thunderbird filing the lot Manager Laura Martin had a tent set up that was big enough for all to get out of the hot sun. A lovely breeze helped keep us cool, also.

In addition to our club cars, there were a number of Ford trucks and other cars on display in front of the dealership.

The dealership encouraged all to sign up to win a set of tires. Member Chris Kern was the eventual winner.

In her second job as chef, Manager Laura grilled hot dogs for all. Chips, cookies, pop and water rounded out the luncheon.

Laura informed us that a Mustang hat had been put in all the Mustangs in attendance and some other door prizes were given out.

The fun was topped off with a Happy Birthday Mona, Dairy Queen Cake. Many more happies, Mona, and thank you for the cake.

Members in attendance were Curly and Karon Long, Carl and Brenda Kindig, Larry and Shirley Weaver, Phil and Tandy Niocodemus, Bob and Pat Goeller, David Yoder, Jim and June Schmidt, Brad and Kim, Ken Schmitt, Bill Stickley, Sr. and Jr., Ted Sauerbeck, Howard Barrett, Mona Steiner, Joe Kraatz, Kami Woody, Art Campbell, Chris Kern, Shirley and Roger Kaser, Ruben Chupp, and Marty Hughes.

As the sun set in the west, we all thanked Laura and her dealership and hoped to be back next year.

After slaving over a hot grill to cook lunch for everyone, Chef Laura Martin awarded a number of door prizes to lucky winners

Mona's ice cream birthday cakes were a welcome dessert on a hot day

Chris Kern won the set of tires being raffled off by Bremen Ford

'Blue Angels' Mustang celebrates 100 years of naval aviation

By MICHELLE KOUEITER on 7/11/2011

Ford Motor Co. teamed with U.S. Naval Aviation to produce a single-edition "Blue Angels" 2012 Ford Mustang GT, to be auctioned in honor of the 100th anniversary of the Navy's air presence.

The design of the centennial-edition GT was inspired by the F-18 Hornet aircraft used in the Blue Angels aviation team's performance demonstrations. It will cross the auction block at the Gathering of Eagles charity event, held the week of the Experimental Aircraft Association's 2011 AirVenture on July 28 in Oshkosh, Wis.

Auction proceeds will go to the EAA Young Eagles organization to finance education for young pilots. The organization has offered free introductory flights to more than 1.6 million pilots-in-training since 1992.

The Blue Angels Mustang features a Ford Racing supercharged 5.0-liter V8 engine, rated at 624 hp, backed by a performance exhaust system, handling pack and upgraded brakes.

The exterior was custom-painted chrome blue with loud yellow accents used for the Blue Angels script and crest. For added effect, the Blue Angels script is illuminated in the sill plates, and puddle lamps project jet images when the door opens. Matching yellow stitching is used in the interior to outline the leather Recaro seats.

"The high interest among aviators in the U.S. Navy and the Blue Angels Mustang team will make this a very sought-after item," said Tom Poberezny, EAA president and AirVenture chairman, "and ensure EAA's ability to do some amazing things for our future aviation enthusiasts."

For more about the AirVenture event, visit its Web site, www.airventure.org/gathering.

Ford's Sync takes on General Motors' OnStar with live operators

Ford's Sync system connects via the driver's mobile telephone.

By JAMIE LAREAU, AUTOMOTIVE NEWS on 7/11/2011

Ford Motor Co. is taking on General Motors' OnStar system by offering live operator assistance.

Ford's new feature, called Operator Assist, offers live operators to help Sync Services subscribers find a business or get turn-by-turn directions. OnStar offers a similar service.

The enhanced service is in a trial phase, Ford said. It is available to Sync Services users with 2010, 2011 and 2012 models.

Ford spokesman Alan Hall said the automaker plans to use feedback from the live trial this summer to determine how and whether to continue the service.

Doug VanDagens, Ford's director of connected services solutions organization, said, "By leveraging what's available in the cloud, we continue to innovate and improve our customers' experience without having to touch the vehicle or inconvenience the owner."

Ford's Sync is an in-vehicle infotainment system that pairs with a driver's Bluetooth mobile device for hands-free operation. Sync Services is a cloud-based, on-demand and voice-activated service that provides information about traffic, news, sports, weather, horoscopes, stock quotes and movie listings along with business searches and turn-by-turn directions.

Sync has not offered live operators before. Operator Assist is for registered users of Sync Services at no extra charge. No additional software or hardware is needed.

Operator Assist will give drivers a choice of interacting with a live operator or using a voice recognition system, said David Gersabeck, Ford's product manager for Sync Services.

At any time during a search for a business or while receiving directions, a driver can say "operator" to be connected to a person. Gersabeck said drivers asked for this type of service because their voice request was not always understood by the system.

"We want Ford Sync Services customers to have the peace of mind that comes with knowing they can get where they're going or want to go," Gersabeck said. "Being able to connect with a live person at any time contributes to that peace of mind."

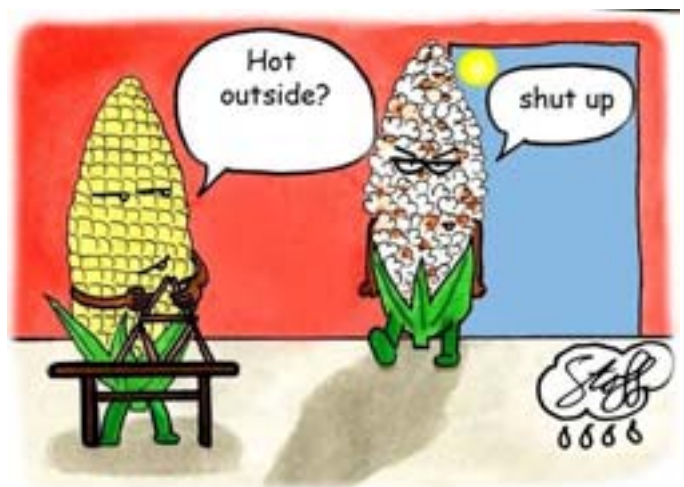

About 70 percent of calls to Sync are for business searches and/or directions, Gersabeck said. Sync Services has more than 14 million business listings.

GM's OnStar telematics is known for its call center with live operators. OnStar's advertising has featured live operators offering subscribers turn-by-turn directions and emergency assistance among other things.

To better compete with OnStar's emergency response service, Ford added its "911 Assist" service to Sync in 2008.

When an airbag is deployed, "911 Assist" quickly connects vehicle occupants to local emergency personnel--provided the occupant's mobile phone is synced to the vehicle.

Aussie (Politically Incorrect) Biker Humor

A biker was visiting the zoo when he noticed a little girl leaning into the lion's cage.

Suddenly, the lion grabbed her and tried to pull her inside.

As the child's parents stood screaming, the biker leaped to the cage, and, with a powerful punch, hit the lion right on the nose.

The lion released the child as he jumped back in pain and the biker handed her back to her terrified parents, who thanked him endlessly. A reporter happened to see the incident, and said to the biker, "Sir, that was the bravest thing I've ever seen!"

"Why, it was nothing, really. The lion was behind bars. The child was in danger and I acted without thinking."

"Regardless, check tomorrow's papers! You'll be on the front page!"

The next morning, sure enough, right there on the front page was the biker's story, under the headline: "Biker Assaults African Immigrant and Steals His Lunch."

From the Back Seat

Ideas

Last month I mentioned that we were looking for new ideas for remembering our deceased members, as we were at our tree limit in Twin Branch Park.

The response from those at the picnic was very good. As June mentioned in the minutes, ideas included:

1. "Assigning" multiple name plates to the trees that are already there
2. We purchase a wood plaque and have the names inscribed on brass plates on the plaque. If allowed, the plaque could be hung at our meeting place.
3. Putting a stone at the park with a list of the members we were honoring; we could then add to the list as necessary.
4. Add a section to our web page with remembrances of the members; each of us could add our own memories of each member.
5. List the honored members on our show trailer.

As I mentioned at the picnic, there is nothing stopping us from implementing any number of these ideas. For example, we could do the web page memorials along with any of the other ideas.

These ideas are a good start. If you've got other ideas, please let us know.

Have a good month...
